

Apartment for sale in Vasanello

€ 130.000

Ref. 257

360 sq.m. | Bathrooms: 3 | Bedrooms: 6 | Rooms: 9

In Vasanello, we offer for sale, in an exclusive setting, three residential units of approximately 120 square meters each, located entirely on the first floor.

The apartments are sold in their raw state and this represents an incomparable strategic advantage.

You'll have complete control over the layout of the rooms, the location of the utilities, and the style of the finishes. Thanks to the nature of the property, you can also maximize energy efficiency by installing the latest technologies, such as home automation or underfloor heating, while also taking advantage of the tax breaks available for renovations.

Each unit boasts generous floor space that allows for a variety of interior configurations, ranging from large open spaces with island kitchens to three-bedroom, two-bathroom solutions.

Flexibility is the true luxury of modern architecture and this proposal is its maximum expression.

Those looking for a large primary residence in a quiet setting can choose to purchase a single apartment, or they can opt for a block purchase, an ideal solution for construction companies or large families who want to live close together while maintaining their independence on the same floor.
